French Teacher Subject Specialism Training

Who is this course for?

The TSST course is aimed at teachers with QTS in the state sector (including secondary and middle schools, FE Colleges, special schools and PRUs) who are already teaching or plan to teach some French at secondary/FE level. The course is also suitable for those returning to teaching after a career break.

For teachers meeting the criteria, this course is FREE through funding provided by the DfE and is run by the Avon Teaching School Alliance at Malmesbury School and University of Bristol.

Programme Objectives

Preparing non-specialists to teach French confidently at KS3 and through to GCSE, the course draws on up-to-date research to improve subject knowledge, pedagogy and practical skills.

Outcomes for participants:

- raise the overall quality of teaching and learning in lessons and contribute to schemes of learning
- extend subject knowledge and learn and develop skills with others from schools across the region
- wider teaching opportunities after the TSST programme is complete

Outcomes for Schools

- increased number of language specialists with the confidence to teach French as a second subject
- more flexibility in timetabling
